Hilltop: Other information

- During the couple of days there: we will update website as often as we can, don't panic if there isn't a photo of your child
- No cameras - we will take photos and make them available on our return
- Children will be in one group for activities during the week and with a different set of children for their bedrooms – we will consult the children about these groups and will do our best to make sure they are with friends (not just with children from their class)

Thank you
