

JACK AND THE BEANSTALK

Once upon a time there was a poor boy called Jack. His mother said, “Go to the market and sell the cow.”

Early one morning Jack set off. He walked and he walked and he walked until he met a strange man. He sold the cow but all he got was three big brown beans.

His mother was furious and she threw them out of the window.

The next day the beans had grown into a giant beanstalk. He climbed and he climbed and he climbed.

When he got to the clouds he saw a huge castle in the distance. He walked and he walked and he walked until he got to the castle.

First he pushed open the huge door.

Next he crept in and stole a golden egg and a golden harp.

Suddenly he heard..... “FIE FI FO FUM” and a huge giant came into the room.

Jack was quick. He ran and he ran and he ran and raced down the towering beanstalk.

He chopped and he chopped and he chopped until the towering beanstalk came tumbling down.

The huge giant tumbled to the ground.

Finally Jack and his mother lived happily ever after.

